

TROCADERO

TALENTI

Available in a range of finishes

Inspired by the street furniture that filled the terraces of the capital of France at the beginning of the 20th century, the Trocadero collection, designed by Ramón Esteve transmits the Romanticism of that age through a practical and reviewed design. Its materials, provide the lightweight appearance that characterises the collection. The asymmetrical composition of the slats of the seat, make Trocadero a different, timeless design.
